

Lillstreet Art Center: Code of Conduct

In order to provide students, visitors and staff with a supportive program environment, Lillstreet Art Center (LAC) is committed to putting the following code of conduct into practice:

Lillstreet Art Center will not tolerate any behavior that is disruptive of its programs. Students are not to engage in any behavior that:

- threatens the safety or comfort of any student, employee, faculty member or visitor
- is a danger to themselves or any other student, employee, faculty member or visitor
- interferes with LAC's ability to conduct classes, workshops, open studios, special events, or other LAC programs.

LAC has the sole right to determine whether the behavior is in violation of its Code of Conduct.

Some examples of unacceptable behavior are:

- being present on the premises or in class under the influence of drugs or alcohol
- sexual harassment, inappropriate touching, verbal abuse, physical violence or threat of physical violence
- disruptive behavior in class which compromises the instructor's authority, or interferes with other students' ability to participate effectively
- damaging or destroying the property of LAC, other students, staff, members or visitors.

Violation of the above may result in suspension or expulsion from Lillstreet Art Center.

Other penalties might include the forfeit of tuition and fees, financial responsibility for any damage caused, parental notification, and being sent home at the parent's expense.
